

QUICKSHOW Services Agreement

This is a services agreement between _____ (as agent) and Quickshow to share services and promotional interests.

The goal of this agreement is to provide agent with promotional Quickshows and marketing information, for the agent to discover and propose to their customers, Quickshow shows and messaging applications.

Quickshow agrees to create and service a minimum of three show messages for agent, and as many messaging accounts as jointly agreed upon, at no charge to the agent.

These shows are intended for use by the agent for their normal operations and radio advertising promotional use, to explain and advance their product and services conversations..

At such time and business situation that agent decides to present Quickshow field sales messages to their customer, additional shows for sale to agents customer will follow the below cost and markup schedule:

TERMS:

Item	Cost to agent	Customer Suggested retail price
Single Quickshow	$300 each	$1000 to $1500 each
Quickshow package of 5 shows	$1250, pay $250 each for show when created	$6000 customer invoice
Show edit / post approval	$50 each	Agent sets pricing
Walking package	$50 each	Agent sets pricing
Creative account	See note *	n/a
Messaging account	$50 per year	$120 per year

Show Build Details: Expected average duration of each show will be between 40 and 90 seconds. Agent to supply customer approved script. Quickshow will create show for edit and approval. At their option, Agent can supply audio and images. Average show build time is 3 days. Shows provided as personalized, panelized swf, as a YouTube video, placed in a messaging account.

Show Edit Details: Customer or agent can revised any show for audio, images and text.

Walking package includes raw and controlled swf file, walking html code, video file, stand alone DVD.

Creative accounts are used by Quickshow staff to assemble and edit shows. Access is not required nor needed by agent. $1500 / year for agent to build their own shows, includes user training and technical assistance and messaging admin support.

Messaging Account is used to create and change the panel contact information, profile, for email sending, tracking, etc. One account provided FREE for each customer, additional accounts $120 / year, which includes sales person training.

Shows never expire and there are no usage and / or activity charges.

Quickshow will never directly contact an agent's customer.

This agreement is in effect, upon signature and date, until terminated by agent, 90 days notice by Quickshow..

Agreed:
Agent

Quickshow

date: _____

date: _____